

BIO - Luciana Dias

Luciana Dias is currently Commissioner at the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (since January 2011) and Professor of Securities Regulation and Banking Law at the Law School of Fundação Getúlio Vargas (since 2008), both in Rio de Janeiro. Previously, she was the Director of Market Development at the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (from 2007 to 2010), the department of the Commission in charge of rule making. She also has worked as associate in law firms in Rio de Janeiro, São Paulo and New York. Ms. Dias holds a Doctorate (2014) and a Master (2005) degree in commercial law and a J.D. equivalent degree (2000), all from the Law School of the University of São Paulo, in São Paulo. She also holds a master degree from Stanford Law School, in California (Master of the Science of Law - J.S.M., 2005). Ms. Dias is admitted to the Bar Association in São Paulo and New York.