

BIO- Eduardo Flores Herrera

Mr. Eduardo Flores is currently the Vice-president for Securities Market Supervision of the National Banking and Securities Commission, having the responsibilities of the authorization of public offerings and mutual funds, and the supervision of capital, debt and derivatives markets, including their participants, such as exchanges, clearing houses, brokers and credit rating agencies. Mr. Flores received a bachelor's degree in Law by the "Universidad Panamericana, Campus Guadalajara". Mr. Flores has more than a decade of professional experience beginning his professional career in "Cuesta Campos y Asociados" he later was associate of "White & Case" in Capital Markets and finance area.