

Rosemary Yung-Hsin Wang

Ms. Rosemary Yung-Hsin Wang is the Deputy Director-General of Securities and Futures Bureau (SFB). She is responsible for supervision of the securities secondary markets, futures market and investment funds. She also serves as the committee member of Labor Pension Fund Supervisory Committee.

Ms. Wang has been working with the SFB for more than 26 years. Previously she was the Chief Secretary of SFB. Prior to that, she worked for Securities Investment Trust and Consulting Division, Securities Trading Division, Corporate Finance Division and International Affairs Division, responsible for the supervision of securities investment trust and consulting companies, securities trading system, market surveillance, enforcement of illegal trading, public listing and foreign investments as well as related matters.

Ms. Wang acquired her MBA degree from National Chengchi University, Taiwan.