25 April: GEM PUBLIC CONFERENCE: LONG-TERM FINANCING THROUGH CAPITAL MARKETS (OPEN TO THE PUBLIC)

9.00am – 9.20am	Welcome Remarks by Clairette Ah-Hen Chief Executive, Financial Services Commission, Mauritius Opening Remarks by Ranjit Ajit Singh Chairman, IOSCO Growth and Emerging Markets Committee and Chairman, Securities Commission Malaysia
9.20am -11.10am	Session 1: Access to long-term financing through capital markets The session will discuss strategies, key issues and challenges faced by issuers and investors in relation to long-term financing. Are the investment needs being sufficiently fulfilled by the current available platforms in the capital markets and what are the current preferred channels of accessing long-term financing? How can capital markets generate greater interest in long-term capital formation? What would make capital markets a more attractive investment platform? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Alison Harwood, Capital Markets and Corporate Governance Service Line, World Bank/IFC• Rodney Mkansi, Senior Financial Analyst, Liability Management, National Treasury of South Africa• Fahad Al-Sudairy, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Saudi Electricity Company, Saudi Arabia• Mark Wang, Chief Investment Officer, AIA, Malaysia• James Benoit, Chief Executive, AfrAsia Bank Ltd, Mauritius Moderator: Bert Chanetsa, Vice Chair, IOSCO Growth and Emerging Markets Committee and Deputy Executive Officer, Financial Services Board, South Africa

11.10am-1.00pm	Session 2: Role of intermediaries in facilitating long-term financing through capital markets The session will discuss recent global trends, developments and cross-border issues that impact long-term financing in both growth and emerging, as well as developed markets. How do prevailing trends such as bank deleveraging following global reforms, differ on a regional, industry and product basis, and how do these trends impact long-term financing? What can be done to increase the pool of long-term funds and what are the success stories? Can intermediaries play a bigger role in facilitating long-term financing through capital markets by smoothening the transition from bank financing and introducing new product innovations? What else can intermediaries do to promote long-term financing through capital markets and do they have a role in boosting the attractiveness of complex infrastructure projects? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • K.
