

MFSA Warning - Amrica Fx Trade - Unlicensed Entity

JUNE 10, 2022

Share |

The Malta Financial Services Authority (“MFSA”) has become aware of an entity operating under the name of Amrica Fx Trade (“the Entity”) which has an internet presence at www.amricafxtrade.com. The Entity claims to be “a Maltese directed investment services supplier that works under European and Maltese guidelines”.

It also purports to be “authorized and regulated by MFSA as a MiFID firm and holds a Category 3 Investment Services Licence”, making unauthorised use and reference to company details of a Maltese licensed company.

The MFSA wishes to alert the public that Amrica Fx Trade is NOT a Maltese registered company NOR licensed or otherwise authorised by the MFSA to provide any investment services or other financial services which are required to be licensed or otherwise authorised under Maltese law. The public should therefore refrain from entering into any transactions or otherwise dealing with the above-mentioned entity on any matters falling within the parameters of the Investment Services Act, Chapter 370 of the Laws of Malta.

The MFSA would like to remind consumers of financial services not to enter into any financial services transaction unless they have ascertained that the entity with whom the transaction is being made is authorised to provide such services by the MFSA or another reputable financial services regulator. Investors are advised to be extra cautious when being approached with offers of financial services via unconventional channels such as telephone calls or social media.

A list of entities licensed by the MFSA can be viewed on the official website of the MFSA at <https://www.mfsa.mt/financial-services-register/>.

If you are a victim of a scam or think you might be dealing with an unauthorised entity or any other type of financial scam, first of all stop all transactions with the company and contact the
