

BIO - Gerben Everts

Gerben Everts is member of the Executive Board at the Netherlands Authority for the Financial Markets. His main areas of responsibility are: supervision on securities markets, infrastructure, financial reporting and auditing. He is a member of the IOSCO Board. Everts has been working for the AFM since September 2011. He came from APG where he held the position of manager Corporate Finance, Control and Risk Management. He also held several ancillary positions in the field of financial reporting, auditing and corporate governance for representative organizations of institutional investors. From 2002 to 2006 he worked in Brussels for the European Commission, DG Internal Market. There he was directly involved, inter alia, in the coordination of the Financial Services Action Plan of former Commissioner Frits Bolkestein. Everts worked from 1998 to 2002 at the Ministry of Finance where he was involved in the introduction of independent public supervision on financial reporting, market abuse legislation and EU Council negotiations on IFRS and takeover bids. He started his professional career as an auditor at Price Waterhouse (the legal predecessor of PwC). From 1989 to 1996, Everts studied both law and business economics/accountancy in Groningen, The Netherlands, and became chartered accountant in 1998.