

Martin Wheatley

Chief Executive, Financial Conduct Authority (FCA)

Martin is the Chief Executive of the Financial Conduct Authority. He previously joined the FSA on 1 September 2011 as the Managing Director of the Conduct Business Unit.

Martin joined the FCA from Hong Kong's Securities and Futures Commission where he served as CEO for five years. Before this, he held various roles including Deputy Chief Executive of the London Stock Exchange Group plc and sat on the FSA's Listing Authority Advisory Committee.