

José-Oriol Bosch

CEO - Bolsa Mexicana de Valores
Mexico

Jose-Oriol Bosch is the CEO of the Mexican Exchange, since January 1st 2015. He has 27 years of experience in the financial markets.

Before joining the Bolsa, he was the Chairman and CEO of J.P. Morgan brokerage house, as well as, Head of Emerging Markets Trading at J.P. Morgan bank in Mexico .He joined JPMorgan in 1992, holding diverse positions in both, New York and Mexico. Prior to J.P. Morgan, he worked at Citibank Mexico and at Inverlat brokerage house.

Oriol was a Board member, as well as member of the Trust Control, of the Mexican Stock Exchange since its IPO in mid 2008.

He chaired the Mexican Financial Markets Commission at the Mexican Banking Association (ABM), from 2007 to 2014. Oriol was also a Board member of the Mexder (Mexican Derivatives Exchange), and Board member of the AMIB (Mexican Brokerage Houses Association).

He is currently President of the Investment Committee of two important non-profit human organizations in Mexico: Becalos and Fundacion Quiera.

Oriol holds a B.A. degree in Business and Finance from the Universidad Panamericana, where he is a member of the consultative board.