Monitoring Group Appoints Ryan Wolfe as its Chair

The Monitoring Group (MG) is pleased to announce Mr. Ryan Wolfe as its new Chair, effective immediately.

The MG is a group of international financial institutions and regulatory bodies committed to advancing the public interest in areas related to international audit and assurance-related standard-setting and audit quality.

Mr. Wolfe serves as the Acting Chief Accountant of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (U.S. SEC). He brings over 20 years of experience as a professional accountant and consultant in various regulatory oversight roles.

Ryan Wolfe stated: “I am honored to take on the role as MG Chair and look forward to working with the MG members and global stakeholders in the ongoing effort to promote high-quality international audit, assurance, ethics, and independence standards. Advancing the MG’s important work to refine the governance of the standard-setting system for the benefit of investors and other stakeholders remains as important as ever to global capital markets.”

Mr. Wolfe succeeds Paul Munter who served as the MG Co-Chair between June 2021 and April 2023, and MG Chair between April 2023 and January 2025. Mr. Munter retired as the U.S. SEC Chief Accountant in January 2025.
